A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,

BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Charleston, S. C.; the Siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every Intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period and that there was no work to supply its place, I was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1869.

SENATOR SWEET.

At the last session of the General Assembly, this gentleman made the impression on some, that there was at least one finest carpet bagger among us, and he was the man. The carpet baggers, Littlefield and Pike, denounced him without stint or measure. Pike blackguarded him in his most choice billingsgate, "liar," "villain," "scoundrel," were his gentlest phrases for Sumner Sweet. None but Gov. Holden and Radicals believed Pike's vituperation and abuse of Sweet; the Governor has shown his appreciation of Pike's services by taking him into his military family and bestowing upon him the rank of Colonel.

Littlefield's assault upon Sweet went for nothing, as every man knew his purpose was to swindle and plunder, and he would, therefore, denounce any man who was in the way of his object.

Sweet now has a new accuser, in the person of Judge Tourgee. Tourgee charges infamous conduct upon Sweet and Heaton in framing that clause of the constitution which the carpet baggers rely upon as an excuse for holding their seats for four years and four months, instead of two years, as the constitution plainly declares.

If Judge Tourgee has said to two gentlemen, as reported for two weeks in the papers, that he, Sweet, and Heaton, in consultation behind the Speaker's chair, framed the clause of the constitution with a view of holding for four years and four months, then we are prepared to believe all that Pike, Littlefield and the Standard said of him. It has never appeared in the SENTINEL, but we shall look it up, to the end that the people may know what manner of man Sweet is. We will not condemn him upon the evidence of Littlefield and Tourgee; we would trust Tourgee no farther than we would Littlefield, and Littlefield no further than we would an unconverted thief.

Judge Tourgee is known to be a man utterly regardless of the truth. Sweet, after the Standard denounced him for every thing mean, low and base, took a contract on Littlefield's Railroad, for work. He and Littlefield, after the Standard's denunciations, became as thick as thieves. This is the only thing we know against the good conduct, character and standing of Senator Sweet.

We call on Senator Sweet to know if Judge Tourgee told the truth, about that covert clause in the Constitution.

FAT SHOFFNER.

It is amusing to see Governor Holden putting this fat Dutchman forward to make the people of Alamance father the bill to give the Governor despotic and absolute power over the property and persons of all citizens of the State.

Fat Shoffner says he introduced the bill at the earnest solicitations of his most respectable constituents; we shall believe that when he names them. He says he was threatened with violence, and "perhaps with death," if he introduced the bill,—not a word of it so! He is in doubt himself as to whether he was threatened with death; now, he was either threatened or he was not threatened, but he says "perhaps" he was threatened, we say, no "perhaps" about it; he was not threatened or he would have said so.

Pike arrogates to himself something for Shoffner's bill; he says, the leading points of the bill are similar to those editorially recommended by the Standard. Of course Pike knew of the bill long before Shoffner did.

This is the Governor's League bill; it should be entitled a bill to encourage and protect the League in the commission of rape, arson, larceny, and murder.

The only way to escape the danger which threatens us is, for the two secret Societies, which now disturb our peace, to speedily dissolve. It is no new experiment Governor Holden is trying; he knows, and has said so, that where secret political Societies exist, in Republican Governments, there will be crime, arson and assassination. We shall have our hands clear of the blood which the two secret political Societies are fast preparing to shed. The Governor is the head center of one; we have no knowledge as to who is the controling spirit of the other; but we call upon them, now, as they value the peace and good order of society, to quit their secret, diabolical works. The collision will come, blood will flow, barns and houses will burn, so long as two oath bound secret Societies exist in the land.

WHERE IS HE?

Where is he? Where is "Milton Swindler Littlefield," as the Rutherford Star (Republican) calls him? We have it indirectly from Gov. Holden's new Colonel, Pike, that Milton is, or will soon be, in Montgomery, Ala. Wonder if he has letters of introduction and endorsement from the Governor, with the great seal of State affixed?

We went home last week to spend two days with our family, as has been our custom since we took charge of the SENTINEL. We went from there to Graham Court, where we spent one day. This runaway, absconder and swindler, has it in his paper, that we have fled to avoid the investigating Committee. We have never been summoned; we are ready, willing and waiting to go when called upon, and we take this occasion to say, that men who value their character for honesty, should not be slow to seek and demand investigation of their conduct when assailed. Let Jones, Sloan and Littlefield take the hint.

BLOOD IN THE BILL.

Governor Holden has failed in forming his new party, of old Whigs and negroes, against the Democrats and carpet baggers; he now falls back upon the carpet baggers and Leagues; he returns to his old war cry of, "not safe in the South for Northern men and negroes." He has had a bill introduced in the Senate, by the fat Dutchman, Shoffner, of Alamance, empowering him, (the Governor,) to support league thieving, burning and murder, by the strong arm of the military. The bill provides for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus—the great writ and right, and safeguard of liberty. A government without this great writ of personal right, is an unqualified despotism.

The bill allows the Solicitors to select the county where certain indictments shall be tried; he can pick his county, and in many counties he can pick his jury. The Governor wishes the power to arrest whom he may, without making oath or affidavit, as the Constitution requires; he pants for military power; he is one of those bad, restless men, so well described by the arch agitator, Seward, as "always clamoring for war in time of peace, and when he gets the war clamors for peace."

The Governor has not seen enough of the murderous operations of military power; he wishes to avert public attention from the frauds and abuses of his administration, about which he is as dumb as an oyster. He has been employing military power in violation of law, order and the constitution, and now he wants a bill to enable him to employ the military with some semblance of law on his side. If he could send the military to Jones and Alamance without Shoffner's bill, why could he not send them to every county of the State?

When this false, bad man said, for twenty years, that we could peaceably secede, we used to say, he could no more do so than he could turn old ocean up side down and spill no water. We tell him now, Shoffner's bill, in his cowardly hands, will produce horrors, calamities, and cruelties to the people of North Carolina. He cant' enlarge the liberties, reform the abuses, or restore the credit and character of the State, by military power or a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. Neither the moral, social or political condition of a people was ever improved by taking up the sword. The late war is only another lesson added to the many, in which history abounds, that this is so. Truth, reason, christianity and the constitution, are stronger than the sword in the hands of a weak, wicked false speaking Executive, whose sworn followers fill every jail house and prison in the State. You coward, throw down your sword, even if voted to you by the passage of Shoffner's bill.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED.

Mr. Shoffner moved a suspension of the rules in order to introduce a military bill of which no notice had been given. After some discussion the motion prevailed by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Cherry, Eppes, col., Forkner, Galloway, col., Hayes, Hawkins, Harrington, Hyman, col., Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Shoffner, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, and Winstead.—27.

NAYES.—Messrs. Beall, Beeman, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Melchor, Murphy, Respass, Robbins, Scott, and Wilson.—11.

AN ACT TO SECURE THE BETTER PROTECTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Governor is hereby authorized and empowered whenever in his judgment the civil authorities in any county are unable to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life and property, to declare such counties in a state of insurrection and to call into active service the militia of the State to such an extent as may become necessary to repress such insurrection.

Sec. 2. That the Governor is hereby authorized and empowered to request the President of the United States to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in any county or counties declared under authority of this act to be in a state of insurrection, and to afford such assistance as in his judgment may be necessary to enforce obedience to law.

Sec. 3. That upon motion of the Solicitor of a District it shall be the duty of the Judge thereof to remove the trial of any person indicted for murder, conspiracy, and in violation of an act ratified the 12th day of April, 1869, from the county where such offence may have been committed to such other county as the Solicitor may designate.

Sec. 4. That the expenses attending the calling of the militia into active service as herein provided shall be paid by the Treasurer of the State upon the warrant of the Governor and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the county declared to be in a state of insurrection and where such service was rendered to reimburse within one year the Treasurer of the State the expenses thus paid; Provided, That whenever a person or persons shall have been convicted of a violation of the act mentioned in section three of the act said expenses of the militia shall be taxed on the bill of costs against the person or persons convicted, and when collected the same shall be paid into the Treasury of such county.

Sec. 5. That all laws or clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Mr. Shoffner moved a suspension of the rules in order to put the bill on its second reading.

Mr. Graham raised the point, that as the 16th section of the Constitution, legislative department, provides that no bill making appropriation can pass but one reading on the same day in either House, the motion to put the bill on its second reading was out of order, as it had already been read once, and it contained a provision to raise a tax.

The Chair decided the point not well taken.

Mr. G. appealed for the decision of the Chair, and the Chair was sustained by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Eppes, col., Forkner, Galloway, col., Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Scott, Shoffner, Smith, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, and Winstead.—28.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beall, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Melchor, Murphy, Robbins, and Wilson.—9.

The motion to suspend the rules prevailed, and the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Robbins obtained the floor and said: This is a bill Mr. President, of such an extraordinary character, that it is impossible to discuss it with calmness. An ardent admirer of the safe-guards with which Anglo-Saxon wisdom has fenced in the individual liberty of the citizens against the encroachments of tyrannical power, I feel my soul profoundly moved by this proposition to place the rights of every citizen of this State at the mercy of one man.

It is unnecessary for me to say that I am not a sympathizer with those who violate law. My voice and influence shall ever be given in favor of upholding the law.—Robbers, murderers, barn-burners, ravishers—I denounce them all as outlaws, deserving arrest and punishment. If the object and effect of this bill could be to accomplish this desirable end in a wise and judicious manner, I should not oppose, but support it most heartily.

But this bill will do nothing of that kind. Senators declare that outrages are committed, but when I demand who are the guilty outlaws, no answer is given. All the crimes are recently perpetrated and the criminals are unknown. Then Mr. President, to arrest and punish these offenders, it is Argus and not Briareus that we need, eyes, not arms, are required. No Senator will say that anywhere in this State there is any open or forcible resistance to the civil authority. There is no insurrection or rebellion making head and defying the law. There is no criminal in any county whom the Sheriff and his posse cannot arrest. Why then propose to send out a military force against invisible and unknown enemies. Find out the criminals—mark them—designate them—and then it will be easy to arrest and bring them before the regular tribunals, with the power already at command. Then see that your Judges administer the laws impartially, and then peace will everywhere smile on our land.

This bill clothes your Governor with the authority, at his sole option, to declare any County in a State of seige and under martial law. It gives him the whole military of the State to enforce such edict. It places the entire Treasury at his command to pay his soldiers. What more than this does it take to create a military dictators hip? If these things can be done, why do we deceive ourselves by calling ours a free government? What power has the Kaiser or the Czar which you do not give your Governor by this bill? You say the power will not be abused or used without necessity? Who knows that? And were it even certain, does it accord with the spirit of American institutions to entrust our liberties to any one man—the best man living?

Whither has fled the old time jealousy of tyrants and pride of independence that used to animate American breasts? Do I stand among freemen? Nay, I stand in a subservient parliament that seems ready to do the bidding of a despot. I warn you, Senators, that the way you are treading leads to liberty's loss.

This bill also authorizes steps to be taken for the suspension of the Habeas Corpus. Sacred privilege, bought by the blood of a noble ancestry, and will you strike it down because now and then some fiendish violator of female virtue meets his just doom at the hands of woman's avengers?

You also propose to authorize any solicitor at his pleasure to remove the trial of any prisoner from his own County to any other County in the State, however distant. A jury of his peers, taken from his vicinage, is not to be allowed. And thus you strike down another sacred guarantee of Anglo Saxon law, old as the days of Alfred. Select your County, pack your jury, pack your Judges on the bench, and then we shall gloriously repeat the "bloody assizes" which desolated the South of England after Sedgemoor, while here at the Capital sits your James the second and gloats over his helpless victims!

Pass your bill, but let North Carolina mark who are responsible for it. I know you are determined to pass it and your ears are deaf to all appeals. You have concocted it in caucus, you have counted noses, you bring it in and rush it through hastily, recklessly, blindly. It will increase excitement instead of repressing disorder. It will cause blood to flow in rivers where it flowed before in drops. I deplore this while I predict it. And if this bill passes and be enforced, if some of its fell consequences do not light upon the heads of its authors, and upon the party that is urging it, then I am greatly mistaken.

But, why say more? The voice raised for liberty and for the people in these days is drowned by the roll of drums. I have done what I could, I have spoken for law, for liberty, and for peace. A noble constituency have placed me here to battle for their rights. I have done my duty; but I am overwhelmed by numbers. Now to the people I commend the vindication of their own cause and the guardianship of their own rights for which I have vainly struggled in the Senate Chamber.

By this bill you make up the issue of tyranny against law and liberty. Let the people, whose servants we are, decide it and judge us.

Mr. Beall, said that the Senate on yesterday passed a resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to take this whole subject into consideration, and to report a bill to meet the case. He thought that the proper course to pursue and moved a reference of this bill to the same Committee.

The chair ruled the motion out of order, as the rules had been suspended to put the bill on its second reading.

Mr. Graham said he did not intend to consume much of the time of the Senate, for he presumed from appearances that the minds of Senators were already made up as to how they intended to vote; but he desired to allude to some rumors that were afloat in reference to his county. Any statement that the law could not be enforced there by the civil authorities was simply untrue. He had heard of some depredations that were committed. The burning of three barns in one night, and of two cases of rape on two white women by negroes, which happened some time since; but the Legislature is responsible to a great extent for this state of affairs, in repealing the law to punish larceny with death. In the section of the county in which I reside, there was never a better feeling between the two races than at the present time. He thought it unwise to pass such a bill; it would simply excite the minds of the people and cause those who could med such things to sympathize with the criminal.

Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, said:

MR. PRESIDENT:—I have had the pleasure of supporting many of the measures proposed by the Senator from Alamance since I have occupied a seat on this floor, and, Sir, from the character of the measures he has initiated, and those he has advocated, I feel assured, Sir, that he would not wilfully or recklessly jeopardize the peace of the State. And, yet Sir, in my judgment the inevitable consequence of the passage of such an act as the one proposed, would be to retrace many a painful step which, during the last four years, we have taken towards that goal of our great hope, a condition of permanent and perfect peace, a condition in which we may look, may gaze, once more upon our landscapes and see no blazing camp fires there, when we may listen and hear no more the roll of the sullen drums upon the evening breeze. When war shall be but a dreadful memory in this unhappy land and peace a blessed reality, I come to the consideration of this subject, Mr. President, with no partizan feelings I know, Sir, its importance, and I approach it with that feeling of solemnity which must ever attend the abandonment of the peaceful agents of the civil law and of the conjuring up the untamed spirit of military power, and I appeal to Senators of the dominant party, if they are not predetermined upon the passage of this bill peyond the hope of recall, to accept my words in the spirit in which they are spoken, to break loose from the shackles of party caucuses, and to vote upon this bill with an eye right to the interest of the State. Of all the subjects, Mr. President, upon which we could be called to legislate, this is perhaps, the most delicate, for independent of the gross violence done by this bill, both to the letter and the spirit of our constitutional law; independent of the dangers to which it exposes the liberty of the citizen, by withdrawing from him that protection which the civil law throws around him, its consequent effects upon the prosperity of the State must be, to the last degree, disastrous. Sir, I have ever considered and I still contend, that the chief cause of the slowness with which our State has recuperated since the close of the war, and the main reason why capital and emigration have not flowed thither, is the opinion which prevail abroad, that our pretended peace here is more specious than real, that society and government here stand upon a thin crust of trembling lava, beneath which is ever swelling a seething sea of anarchy and revolution. Is not this true, Sir?—How else shall we account for the fact that the millions of foreigners, who annually land upon our shores, turn a deaf ear to our solicitations, and prefer to buy lands away in the far West rather than take that you offer them at a mere song here, in close proximity to the great ports of the Atlantic, through which all their surplus products go? How else shall we explain that strangest of all the anomalies in the commercial world, that while the price of all other commodities here is regulated by the prices current in those great centers of commerce, the cities of the North, that of money has ranged incontrolled by any influence save the demand in this restricted market? Your cotton is daily bought and sold in this city, and its price varies as the click of the telegraph hourly mark the fluctuations in New York; your tobacco brings just what it is worth considered as an article of commerce, so of your grain, so in short of everything, except money. We find that the capitalists of New York even in those frequently recurring periods of monetary pressure rarely realize more than seven per cent premium upon their loans, while here in the city of Raleigh or in the city of Charlotte, if you go into the market, even upon mortgage of the best city property, you pay from one and a half to two per cent per month. Why, I repeat Mr. President, is this so? It is because capital is proverbially cowardly and flees instinctively from a land where the winds are shaken even by a whisper of war. It is because newspapers here in N. C., for party purposes, have harped upon the pretended disorders in our midst, have represented us, Sir, to a condition bordering upon actual war, until the people of the North, ever too ready to credit evil reports of us, accept these direful fictions as absolute truths, and propagate them with still further embellishments among themselves. And now you propose by this bill to add a legislative endorsement to the truth of all these wild reports and to plunge us again into those very difficulties from which I had most devoutly hoped we were about to emerge. Sir, let us look at this bill; it provides that the Governor may upon his own motion strike down the civil government in any county in this State, and declare that county under martial law, that he may call out the militia to enforce this martial law, and that he shall, whenever he thinks proper, request the President of the United States to suspend the writ of habeas corpus there. Now, Sir, does not this sound like a preparation for war? Who that reads these proceedings abroad but must conclude that we are in the very throes of civil war? Who that reads then would think for a moment of entrusting either his life or his money to the protection of such a government in such a state of society, Mr. President, we will call in vain to the laborer and to the capitalist until we have peace here, until the last vestige of military government has departed the land. We must not only have this peace Sir, but we must convince the world by substantial proofs that it exists, for the bare apprehension of disturbance is quite as potent for this evil purpose as the actual existence of war. That deeds have been done by lawless men which cannot be justified, no one can deny, and no one deprecates them more than myself; they are confined to a few counties and are but one of the phases of the civil war through which we have lately past; they are but the flickering of a flame that had all but gone out; they are but the ripple of the surf where the wave has spent its fury; time and a proper administration of the civil law alone can heal the malady which you but aggravate by your ill timed and ill-considered measures.

But, Mr. President, granting that all is true that is alledged by Senators here, of the condition of things in these counties I see nothing that calls for military interference. When they are asked to point out a single instance where the civil authority has been defied, a single instance where the course of justice has been obstructed by armed violence, and they confess that no instance has come to their knowledge, but they will tell you that murders have been committed and that the murderers are still at large; but, Sir, they are at large because they have not been detected, not because the civil law is powerless to apprehend them; according to their own statements it is the Grand Jury which needs the re enforcements not the officers of the peace, and Sir, in my opinion a battalion of militia would make but poor detectives.

Mr President, I have not discussed this bill in any of its constitutional aspects, for, sir, there are other objections to it more apparent and quite as satisfactory to me, and upon these objections I have chosen to base my remarks, neither, sir, have I dwelt upon the dangerous power which the bill confers upon the Chief Executive of the State, a power to declare martial law, upon his own motion, in time of peace, to erect military tribunals for the trial of civil offenders, and to surround these enjines of oppression with legions of lawless and partizan militia. It is was, sir, in its most painful aspects, and my heart bleeds in anticipation of the fate of the wretched victims in the hands of such a power, and cut off from the protection of civil law, by the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. In the name of God, Mr. President, are we never to have an end of war in this unhappy land? never to see the last of these accursed military tribunals here? has our length ened experience to cra[p]tled us with these things that we must be forever as ever recurring to them? Sir, for one I have seen enough of it in all its phases, God knows, and there is nothing that I would not sacrifice to save our wretched State from even a brief period of actual war, and yet, Sir, in my opinion this chronic condition of threatened war, his lingering apprehension of strife is even more baneful than would be a brief, period of actual war resulting in perfect peace—the one, Sir, is the wild delerium of the convulsions, the other the groping of the stricken victim of a paralysis, as he sits with nerves unstrung, his muscles relaxed, feeling that the light is daily fading from his reason, and the strength from his frame, waiting in utter helplessness the coming of darkness and death. Sir, this Senate has spent days in deliberating upon trifling bills, affecting the vested rights of petty corporations, and now, Sir, they propose to rush through, in one day, a bill fraught with such momentous consequences to the State as this—Sir, such haste is reckless, indecent. Senators of the dominant party may pass it thus, but I tell them that the youngest of them will not see the end of this strife, this military power, if once we embark in it, and I tell them too, that the responsibility and the peril is on them, and upon them I leave it.

Mr. Hayes, called the previous question which was sustained, and the bill passed its second reading. Ayes 29, Nayes 10.

J. A. Hyman, (col.) called the previous question on the third reading of the bill, which was sustained by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burnes, Blythe, Cook, Cherry, Davis, Eppes, (col.) Forkner, Galloway, (col.) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (col.) Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Respass, Shoffner, Smith, Stephens, Sweet, and Winstead, 28.

NAYES.—Messrs. Beall, Beeman, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Melchor, Murphy, Robbins, and Scott, 9.

Mr. Shoffner, moved a reconsideration of the vote.

Mr. Robbins arose and was recognized by the Chair.

Mr. Shoffner claimed the floor and moved to lay his own motion on the table, which prevailed.

Mr. Cook moved a suspension of the rules in order that the bill might be engrossed and sent to the House, which was lost, a quorum not voting.

On motion the Senate adjourned until 7½ o'clock to night.

NOTE.—The Senate met in the evening, but the proceedings were of so little importance as not to demand a record.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1869.

☞ Hereafter all obituaries not exceeding ten lines in length (eight words to the line), will be published free; for any number of lines over ten, ten cents per line will be charged—to be accompanied, in every instance, by the cash, as invariably.

☞ THOS. R. HARRAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

THE GOVERNOR'S WAR BILL FAILED.

Governor Holden's war bill, giving him the power to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to drag people from one end of the State to the other to be tried for civil offences, which was introduced into the Senate on Thursday at three minutes after twelve o'clock, and pressed through, under the gag, at two minutes past two o'clock, came up yesterday, Friday, (hangman's day,) and was pressed with all the vim and vigor that could be imparted by orders from the Lexington and thereabouts lash.

But it went to sleep on the third reading for want of a quorum, where it will rest until the first Thursday after the re-assembling of the hands.

We shall have ample time to allude to this iniquitous measure before the re-assembling of the Legislature, and we intend, the Lord willing, to do it and its movers and advocates full justice, but we desire, now, to make just one or two remarks in connection with the fair; one is that Speaker Holden acted with fairness and impartiality during the desperate fight; and another is, that Messrs. Ames of Lenoir and Harris of Franklin, are particularly entitled to the thanks of the whole State for the manly position they maintained under the strongest pressure.

But we shall refer to the whole matter hereafter.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the advertisement to the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association, for a closing of the Books.

FRANK CHRISTOPHERS, on the North side of the Market Square, keeps a select stock of family groceries, and sells them on very moderate terms. Frank is a good fellow, accommodating and courteous, and we take pleasure in recommending him to those in search of good things in the eating line.

AUCTIONS.—At W. Jones & Co.'s an auction is held every day at 3 p. m. and 7 at night, by Mr. Bromley, of Pennsylvania, where excellent Dry Goods and notions are sold at exceedingly low prices.

AN AUCTION FOR LADIES, at Mrs. Thompson's on Tuesday next—won't there be bidding! The ladies are judges of this sort of goods and they will bring the right sort of prices.

THE FAIR.—The Catholic Fair progressing all this week at Tucker Hall, still continues with unabated interest and success. Thus far it has realized the anticipations of the most sanguine, and will no doubt result in the realization of funds sufficient to materially aid the Church.

DIVINE SERVICES.—We are requested to give notice that Rev. J. T. Leftwich, of Alexandria, Va., will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow, (Sunday) at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 P. M.

TYRMAINE BROTHERS.—These excellent musical performers, with Mr. Pierson, who gave those highly popular musical entertainments at Tucker hall during our State Fair, will be here again on Monday and Tuesday, the 20th and 21st inst., as will be seen by their advertisement, and will give a concert on each night, at Tucker Hall. Read the advertisement, and see the proposal for disposing of a fine organ.

MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE LAST NIGHT.—There was a public meeting called at the Court House, last night, by whom, we know not, for what, we did not learn. We went, we were amazed. Of all the confusion we ever witnessed, in a public meeting, we never saw anything to equal it before. It was "confusion worse confounded," or, as Byron says, "it realized the phrase of hell broke loose." We have no idea of attempting a description of the scene. Hogarth couldn't paint it. The concentrated effort of Dickens, Bulwer, Cooper, Marryatt, Artemus Ward and Sutt Lovingood, would fail in descriptive power to do justice to it.

It began in a row—was continued in a row, and broke up in a stampede, on John Jones, the Barber, turning the gas off.

By the way, who pays the gas bill on such occasions?

PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., through the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, for the State of N. C., and south of the James. Two policies upon the life of J. A. Moore of Raleigh, No. 17,206, $10,000; No. 19,416, $5,000. This is but another illustration added to the many already made known to the public, of what this old and reliable Company is doing in our State.

The following note is appended by permission:

MR. CROW:—Please accept my thanks for your untiring energy and perseverance in procuring for myself and child, the amount due us, from your Company, also my appreciation of your prompt and kindness in our behalf.

Very Respectfully,
MRS. JAMES A. MOORE.

Raleigh, Dec. 14th 1869.

It Astounds Everybody That A Colorless, cloudless fluid, like Spring water, should revive the original tint in white, grey or grizzled hair. Yet so it is. PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR is just such a fluid, as pure and as stainless,—yet it far excels every other dye or coloring liquid ever known, in imparting rich shades of color to grey hair.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock. The unfinished business of yesterday evening—State on the relation of Lewis vs. R. A. Gupton and others was resumed. After long argument, the case was continued until next term by the withdrawal of a juror.

The trial docket was then regularly called, and the Court was occupied the rest of the day in entering judgments, continuances, &c., and adjourned at 6 P. M. A large amount of business was transacted, but nothing of special interest to our readers.

SCOTCH.—Wm. (without the t to it,) recommends Fahnstock's vermifuge for a "gnawing at the stomach." This is selfish in Wm., and done to prevent a rise in "dead shot," which he has been using ever since he got clear of his last tape-worm; notwithstanding which he is still troubled with ——.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 17, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Respass arose to a question of privilege, the reporter of the Standard represented him as having said on yesterday that the Sheriff of Wake had settled with the public Treasurer. He alluded alone to the Sheriff of New Hanover.

Mr. Sweet arose to a question of privilege in regard to an article which appeared in the morning SENTINEL of this city copied from the Western Sentinel in which he (Sweet) is charged with being a party to a manipulation of the constitution so as to prolong the tenure of office of the members of the present General Assembly. Mr. S. denounced the article as a fabrication from beginning to end.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec. 17, 1869.

House met pursuant to adjournment

Mr. Hinnant, for the Committee on Enrolment, reported various bills and resolutions as being correctly entolled.

On motion, the roll was called and 61 members answered to their names.

On motion of Mr. Vest, the rules were suspended and the Senate resolution authorizing the Auditor to move for judgment against delinquent Sheriffs in the special term of the Wake Superior Court, was taken up.

Mr. Justice moved to lay the resolution on the table.

A ballot being taken the vote stood yeas 33, nays 28, (no quorum.)

On motion of Mr. Seymour, a call of the House was had and 62 members responded to their names.

On motion of Mr. French, the doorkeeper was ordered to close the door and allow no member to depart, and that he proceed to arrest absent members and bring them before the bar of the House.

Caffee Mayo, colored, was brought before the bar of the House and on rendering his excuse was discharged.

Mr. Hilliard was also arraigned and on motion discharged.

Mr. Boddie appeared and was discharged.

On motion of J. S. Leary, colored, further proceedings under the call was dispensed with.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in House bill in favor of enterers of lands.

The discussion upon the resolution in reference to delinquent Sheriffs was resumed.

After some debate the bill, on motion, was postponed until the second Tuesday in January.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Hodgin, for Committee on Finance reported favorably upon the resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Chatham.

Various messages were received from the Senate transmitting several bills, among them the bill for the better protection of life and property.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill for the better protection of life and property (for provisions of the bill see Senate proceedings) was taken up.

Mr. Seymour, said he hoped all discussion would come from the opponents of the bill. He was aware of the unprecedented character of the bill. He was aware of the tremendous powers it gave to one man, but as long as affairs were in this condition he was willing to risk any thing.

The bill was put on its second reading and failed for the want of a quorum.

The yeas and nays being called and resulted in the following ballot.

YEAS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Blair, Carson, Cawthorn, Cherry, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Hilliard, Hodgin, Hoffman, Hudgings, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Moore, McCanless, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, Seymour, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Sweat, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Wilkie, Williamson, Wilson and Wiswall—46.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames and Ellington—2.

No quorum voting.

Mr. Seymour moved for a call of the House. In making the motion he recited various Ku Klux outrages in certain parts of the State.

The motion for a call was put to a vote, adopted and 67 members responded to their names.

Mr. French moved to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

Mr. Sinclair opposed the motion. He was for forcing gentlemen. Men in his county dared not give expression to their sentiments. Men in that county were ruthlessly shot down and their houses burned. He wanted protection for his people.

Mr. French's motion was put to a vote and lost.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the doors were ordered to be locked and no member allowed to leave.

Mr. French moved that the Doorkeeper be ordered to arrest absent members and that he be authorized to employ necessary assistance in the performance of such duty. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Downing, further proceedings under the call was dispensed with, doors ordered to be unlocked and the doorkeeper re-called.

Mr. French moved to post pone the consideration of the bill for ten minutes. Lost for the want of a quorum.

On motion of Mr. Seymour another call of the House was had and 66 members responded to their names. The doors locked again and door keeper sent for absent members.

Mr. French moved that the door keeper station a sufficient number of pages around the Hall to prevent members going into the lobbies.

Mr. French said he did not blame Democrats for their movements in opposition to this measure but he did blame skulking members of the Republican party who had left and gone home and left their party in this condition.

Mr. French modified his resolution so as to make it an order of the House.

Mr. Durham raised the point of order that the resolution as it stood was in effect a temporary amendment to the rules of the House.

The Chair sustained the point.

Mr. Downing occupied the floor in reciting Ku Klux outrages.

Mr. Sinclair gave numerous instances of outrages perpetrated upon Democrats in Robeson county as a reason why the bill should pass.

Mr. Moring was brought before the bar of the House and on motion was discharged.

Isham Sweat, col., moved to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the House.

This excited a long debate.

Mr. Pou argued that from the construction of the Constitution, that if there were 61 members actually present in the Hall, the House could vote upon and pass bills without voting the whole of the 61 votes.

Mr. Painter appeared before the bar, and on rendering his excuse, was discharged.

Mr. Downing concurred with Mr. Pou in his interpretation of the Constitution. If there was a quorum in the Hall, the bill would be a good one even if it did not obtain the 61 votes.

Isham Sweat, col., withdrew his motion.

Mr. French wished to know if the doorkeepers could not be sent into the lobbies and bring members into the bar?

The Chair decided not.

Mr. French said that he thought members could be arrested for contempt in going into the lobbies and refusing to vote.—In order to test the matter, he moved that Mr. Jarvis, of Tyrell, be arrested for contempt.

The Chair decided that such proceedings could not be had under a call of the House.

Mr. Jarvis said his conduct in this House was sufficient evidence that he never approved lawlessness of any kind. This bill made an egregrious mistake in the manner which it sought to prevent lawlessness. It would incite the very evils it sought to suppress. He thought it his imperative duty to oppose the bill in way, shape and form. He hoped that while this House was pretending to seek to pass a bill preventing crime and lawlessness, that they would not endeavor to pass it in a lawless manner.

Mr. Seymour moved to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the House. Carried.

The question recurred upon the passage of the bill on its second reading.

Mr. Seymour called the previous question.

The call was sustained.

The yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Blair, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hoffman, Hudgings, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly of Moore, Kinney, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Mayo, McCanless, Moring, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, Proctor, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, Seymour, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Sweat, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Wilkie, Williamson, Wilson and Wiswall—54.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Horney, Mendenhall, Snipes, White, and Williams, of Sampson.—nays 8.

Mr. Seymour called the previous question upon the bill on its third reading.

The call was sustained.

The yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

AYES.—Messrs. Speaker, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Blair, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hoffman, Hudgings, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Mayo, McCanless, Moring, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, Proctor, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, Seymour, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Sweat, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Wilkie, Williamson, Wilson, Wiswall.—54.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ellington, Gunter, Horney, Mendenhall, Snipes, White.—6.

No quorum voting.

Mr. Seymour moved to postpone the bill until the first Thursday after the recess and upon his motion took the floor and drew a picture of Sheriff Colgrove's death. Mr. Seymour called the previous question upon his motion.

The call was sustained and the motion to postpone was adopted.

After the transaction of unimportant business the House adjourned until Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

A MAGNIFICENT NORTH CAROLINA PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE PLANTATION KNOWN AS "OAKLAND," (formerly the property of Dr. Samuel Kerr,) situated in Rowan County, N. C., on the Lincolnton Road, 11 miles from Salisbury, and about 6 miles from China Grove station on the North Carolina Railroad.

This Plantation is one of the most desirable in the State, and in its improvements unsurpassed. It contains 1380 Acres, one-half cleared; a large quantity of Meadow and Bottom Land, over 200 Acres under cover of a Mill Pond for fifty years. The residue is heavily timbered with splendid Oak and Hickory.

The Dwelling Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15 000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 yards from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Flour—with three runs of Stone; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond, to run the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building, resting on a story of rock foundation, has two stories and a half of brick above, with a wall on the first story two feet thick, and could be converted into a factory. The Residence is well situated, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds, if not more, of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Ennis, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown, Mock & Co., H. H. Hedper, Esq., or Col. R. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm. Phifer, Esq., Dr. E. Nye Hutchison.

For Terms or Sale, etc., apply to Hon. J. H. Wilson, Charlotte, N. C.

DR. LAWRENCE'S

Highly Concentrated Compound

FLUID EXTRACT OF

Koskoo!

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER!

NOT A SECRET QUACK MEDICINE—FORMULA AROUND THE BOTTLE.

Prepared Solely by

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.

ORGANIC CHEMIST,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. See that Dr. J. J. Lawrence, Chemist, Norfolk, Va., and the word KOSKOO, is BLOWN ON THE GLASS of each bottle. ☜

Koskoo is endorsed by the best physicians everywhere. Read the following from Dr. Tillery, a successful practitioner of many years standing in the Old North State:

Rocky Mount, Edgecombe Co., Sept. 10, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: I have used your Concentrated Fluid Extract of Koskoo in my practice with the happiest results. I find it to be a powerful Liver Invigorator Blood Purifier and Nervous Tonic. In all diseases of the Liver, Scrofulous Syphilitic, Nervous Affections, it is a remedy of immense value; in fact, in almost every variety of Chronic Disease its use is indicated. Hoping you may meet with the success which you deserve as a manufacturer of reliable medicines, I am sir, with much respect your obedient servant,

R. C. TILLERY, M. D.

From Dr. Pentress, an accomplished and experienced physician.

Princess Anne Court House, Va. Sept. 13, 1869.

J. J. LAWRENCE, M. D.—Dear Sir: I have carefully examined the formula, as well as the Therapeutic properties of your Koskoo compound, and have prescribed it in some stubborn cases of Chronic Liver Affections, Dyspepsia, General Debility, &c., and always with the most gratifying results. I find it to be a splendid Tonic Alterative, and Hepatic combination, accomplishing its constitutional effects without the slightest debility; in fact it gives fine support to the General system while its alternative effects are being produced. I cheerfully recommend its use to the public. Yours, truly;

T. F. PENTRESS, M. D.

Koskoo cures SCROFULA IN ITS WORST FORMS. From Mr. A. W. Mills, a prominent and well-known merchant of Norfolk, Va.:

No. 11, Main St., Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15, 1869.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: Your Koskoo has worked wonders in my family. My daughter has been a sufferer from Scrofula since childhood. She lost thirty-one pieces of bone from her ankle, several from her arm, besides having ulcers in several parts of the body. Whilst in this condition she commenced taking your Koskoo—IT ACTED LIKE A CHARM ON HER—UNDER ITS USE THE ULCERS GRADUALLY HEALED, AND HER GENERAL HEALTH GREATLY IMPROVED. It certainly saved her much suffering, and perhaps her life. I regard Koskoo a specific for all scrofulous affections. Your Koskoo also cured my wife of dyspepsia, from which she suffered greatly. SHE IS NOW IN BETTER HEALTH THAN SHE HAS BEEN IN FIVE YEARS.

With the highest regards, I am gratefully yours, &c.,

A. W. MILLS.

KOSKOO, THE GREAT INVIGORATOR—Read the following from the Rev. Joseph E. Martin, Pastor of Wesley Chapel, Portsmouth Va.:

"This is to certify that myself and wife have used Dr. Lawrence's Koskoo, and can testify to its beneficial effects. Previous to taking it we were in a condition of feeble action—had no appetite, and suffered from sudden and often violent attacks of headache and nervousness. Two bottles of Koskoo has improved our general health, and we regard it as invaluable, and most cheerfully recommend it to all who have need of an invigorator. Yours, truly,

JOSEPH E. MARTIN.

KOSKOO!

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Norfolk, Virginia, September 7, 1869.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: My son has received so much benefit from your wonderful Koskoo that I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude. I had tried almost everything without benefit. I believe, in all sincerity, that your Koskoo is AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY for the disease from which he has suffered, and, so far as I can learn, has never failed. If you only knew the immense amount of suffering that he has undergone, then you could conceive the value of such a remedy as Koskoo—THAT SURELY CURES. The great amount of good it is now doing among us is inestimable.

With much gratitude, I am respectfully yours, &c., MRS. M. E. A. NELSON.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir: Having been treated by several skilful physicians for Dyspepsia, Chronic Disease of Kidneys, General Debility, &c., without benefit, as a last resort I commenced the use of your Koskoo, and am pleased to say that under its use my health has been entirely restored.

I am, sir, with much respect your obedient servant, O. B. MEARS.

No. 3 Market St., Norfolk, Va., July 6, 1869.

Pacific, Franklin Co., N. C., Sept. 11, 1869.

This is to certify that for a long time I suffered very much from inaction of the liver and constipation of the bowels and tried several remedies, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Koskoo. I took the medicine about one month, and I was completely cured and have remained well. I know of several cures made by Koskoo, and can cordially recommend it as a good medicine. JOHN H. BAKER.

From Mr. Womble, a prominent hardware merchant of Norfolk:

No. 13 MARKET SQUARE,
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23, 1869

DR. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir: To the large number of testimonials which you offer of the great efficacy of your Koskoo, I take pleasure in adding my own. I suffered greatly with Nervous Debility, Headache, Loss of Appetite, &c. Two bottles of Koskoo RESTORED ME TO HEALTH.

Yours, truly,
J. G. WOMBLE.

From Rev. W. H. Christian, Pastor Dinwiddie Street Methodist Church:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., October 25, 1869.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Lawrence well. He is a gentleman of cultivation, and worthy the fullest confidence. I have used his 'Koskoo' with advantage to myself, and have adopted its use in my family in cases of nervous debility and depression.

W. H. CRISTIAN.

Adopted by the State Board of Alabama, Aug. 18, 1869.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Louisiana, July 27, 1869.

By reference to the accompanying list of Text Books used in the Schools of North Carolina in 1868, and those adopted this year, it will be seen that, in nearly every important particular,

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

RALEIGH, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY, Prin. Clas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. SCOLLIN, Mount Olive, Oct. 30, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 28, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. E. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's Nat. Philosophy received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction.—O. W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1858, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. DYONNES, Pr. Academy Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [illegible] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALBERT REEVES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography.—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. Wm. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK. VAUGHAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of the State of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that primarily have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and we to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. WM. B. HARRIS, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CLOSE, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—SYLVESTER IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. GRESCHAM, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. O. ROSSELOT, Prop. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school.—Use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stanton-burg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, George F O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, George Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and Yonie's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Bingham, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National Series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MEARES, Chatham county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 25, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the States.—Statesville American, 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "back of our boyhood," we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.
